

Linking the Ocean to the Classroom

A Workshop for grades 7-12 Educators!
At University of New Hampshire
June 28th-July 1, 2004

Co-sponsored by
UNH's Center for Coastal Ocean Observation and Analysis and the Gulf of Maine Ocean Observing System

Application Deadline March 26, 2004

Application

Name: _____ Address: _____
Phone: _____
Email: _____
School _____
Subject Taught _____
Grades Taught _____
Number of years in teaching _____

Please answer the following questions on an attached document and include your resume or CV and a letter of support from your principal or school administrator.

1. Explain your main interest in attending this ocean observation workshop?
  2. How do you think this workshop would help in your curriculum or classroom?
  3. Is your school supportive of integrating new ideas into an existent curriculum?
  4. Is what you teach dependant on a standardized test?
  5. Please explain your teaching background and previous experience in integrating new curricular ideas into the classroom?
-

Please send Applications and Resume to:

Amy Cline COOA's Education and Outreach Coordinator at amy.cline@unh.edu or mailed to:

Attention: Amy Cline COOA
Ocean Observation 2004 Summer Workshop
University of New Hampshire
Ocean Processes Analysis Laboratory
Morse Hall, Room 151,
Durham, NH 03824-3525